

TASK 4

Light and Shadow

Light and Shadow

Keep on the light because it just might ignite in me fears of the night
without it being bright I cannot put up a fight even the darkness has shadows that I cannot hide
And they narrow all the walls of the halls in my mind lost in the terrors I hear the tremors and I remember the taunts of the scarer
but there's a light that's not in plain sight that urges me to fight, rewriting the tears to make things right To fix ones eyes on what is seen is merely temporary whereas holding on to the hope of what's in store is nothing ordinary
He is the only light, the light of my life

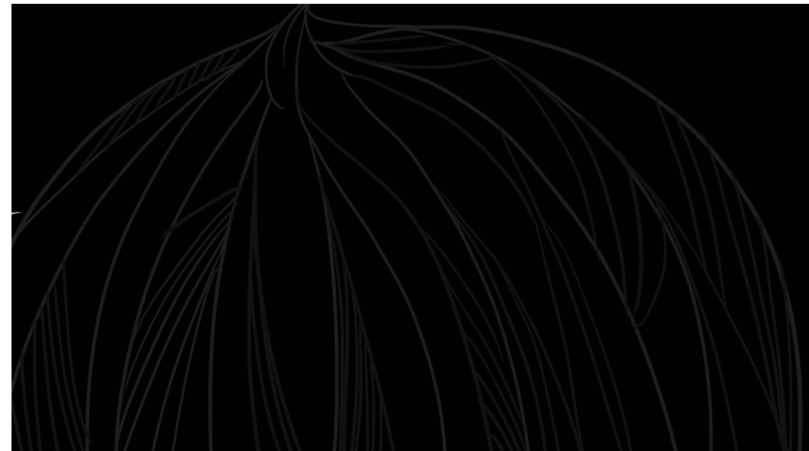

Keep on the light because it just might

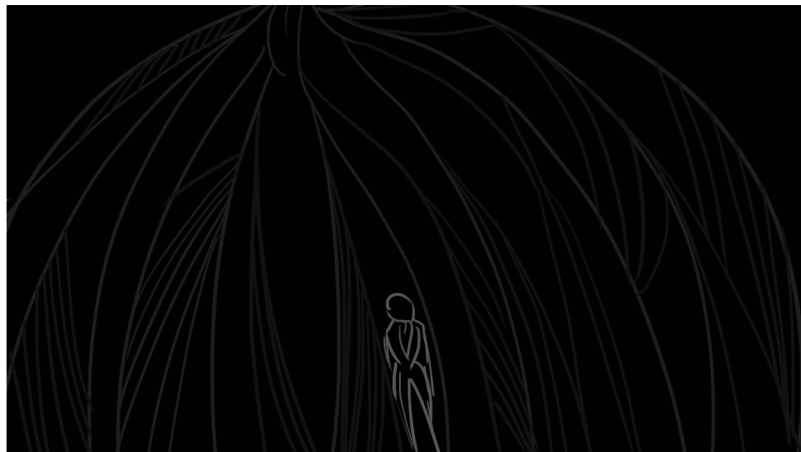

Ignite in me fears of the night

Without it being bright I cannot put up a fight

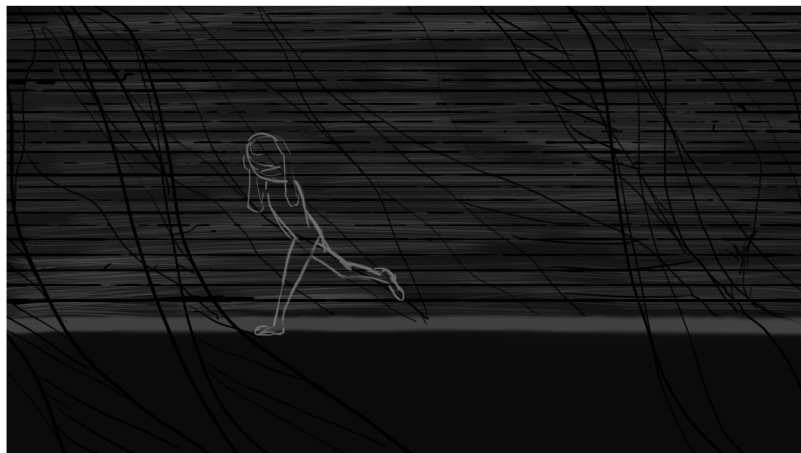

Even the darkness has shadows that I cannot hide

*hair branches out and up like a maze

I hear the tremors

Lost in the terrors and I remember the taunts of the scarer

* door breaks down and apart

that urges me to fight

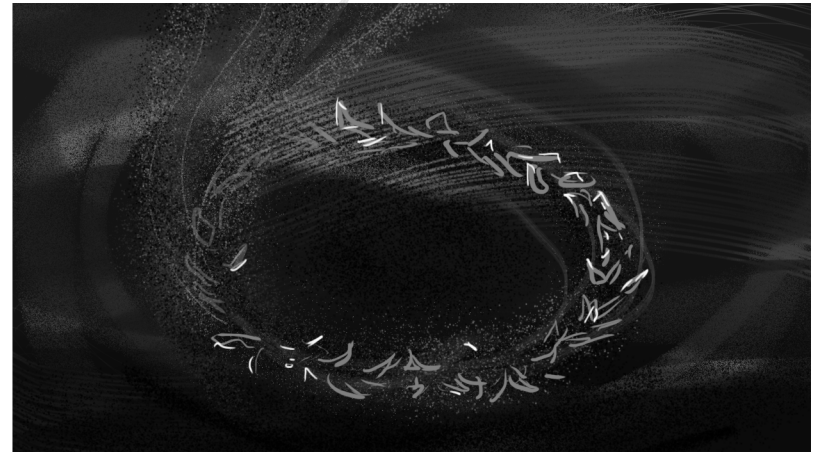

re-writing the tears to make things right

To fix ones eyes on what is seen is merely temporary whereas holding on to the hope of what's in store is nothing ordinary

He is the only light the light of my life.
